

Join us in Baltimore for

128th Columbus Day Parade & Commemoration

October 7, 2018

Join Baltimore's Italian community in the longest-running parade and commemoration in the country to honor Christopher Columbus - in its 128th year!

Come early for best parking, bring the family and spend the day in Little Italy

The celebration festivities include:

9:30 am: Mass at Saint Leo's Church

11 am: Wreath-laying Ceremony, Christopher Columbus Piazza, Little Italy

(Buses will leave from Columbus Piazza to Parade Start – Lot C, Camden Yards)

1-3 pm: Columbus Day Parade starting from Camden Yards, ending in Little Italy

(If you are bringing parade vehicles, line up at Lot C, Camden Yards by 12:30)

3 pm: Wine Festival and outdoor dining

(Don't go home early, enjoy the wine festival and fun activities)

Bring Your Council Banner, Wear Knights Attire, Show Your KofC Pride Come Support Columbus Day in Baltimore and Maryland!

State Officers, State Directors, State Chairmen, District Deputies, Grand Knights, Chapters, Councils, Ladies Auxiliaries, ALL Knights and Families are encouraged to come enjoy the day in Little Italy and march, walk, or ride in the Columbus Day Parade
