

Knights of Columbus

BYLAWS Of The MARYLAND STATE COUNCIL

WITH AMENDMENTS TO AND INCLUDING THE 124th State Convention

ARTICLE I – Annual Meeting of the State Council

Section 1. This body shall be known as the Maryland State Council of the Knights of Columbus. Its jurisdiction shall be co-extensive with the boundaries of the State of Maryland, provided, however, that it shall be extended to include those councils, and the members of those councils, located outside the boundaries of Maryland having members both from within and without the State of Maryland, electing, with Supreme Council approval, to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Maryland State Council; and provided further that exempt from the jurisdiction of the Maryland State Council shall be those councils, and the members of those councils, located within the boundaries of the State of Maryland having members both from within and without the State of Maryland, electing, subject to Supreme Council approval, to be subject to the jurisdiction of another State Council. The powers of the State Council are set forth in the Charter, Constitution and Laws of the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council. These Bylaws shall in no way be in conflict with the Charter, Constitution, and Laws of the Knights of Columbus, or rules and regulations of the Supreme Council or the Board of Directors.

Section 2. (a) The Maryland State Council shall consist of the following who shall have voice and vote:

1. The Supreme Knight, ex-officio.
2. The State Officers who shall be the State Deputy, State Secretary, State Treasurer, State Advocate, State Warden and State Chaplain.
3. The Immediate Past State Deputy. Provided, however, that when the last living Past State Deputy is actually residing in another state or jurisdiction, he shall thereby forever forfeit such right, and his nearest predecessor actually residing in Maryland shall be entitled thereto.
4. The Grand Knight of each subordinate council in good standing.
5. A delegate from each subordinate council in good standing, who shall be elected from the Past Grand Knights of the council. A council having no Past Grand Knight may elect any one of its third degree members in good standing as the delegate.
6. First and second alternates, who shall be elected from the third degree membership of the council but need not be Past Grand Knights. The first alternate shall be seated in the absence of the Grand Knight or delegate and the second alternate shall be seated in the absence of both the Grand Knight and the delegate or in the absence of the Grand Knight or delegate and the absence of the first alternate.

Section 2. (b) The Maryland State Council shall also consist of the following who shall have voice only:

1. All Past State Deputies.

2. All District Deputies.

3. All 3rd Degree members in attendance when recognized by the chair.

Section 3. The Maryland State Council shall be convened annually between the first day of April to, and including, the first day of June by the State Deputy in the city selected by the previous State Council. Upon the failure of the State Council to select the Annual State Council Meeting city, then the State Officers or a majority of said officers shall fix the place and date of such annual meeting on or before December first of each year and it shall be the duty of the State Secretary to cause to be forwarded to every council in the State written notice of the time and place of the meeting at least sixty days prior to said meeting.

Section 4. The State Council at its annual State Council Meeting shall transact such business, enact such rules and regulations affecting the State Council and the Subordinate Councils, discuss such matters relating to the Good of the Order, pass such resolutions, and elect State Officers and delegates and alternates to the Supreme Convention, all of which shall not be in conflict with the Charter, Constitution and Laws of the Knights of Columbus.

Section 5. The Grand Knight of each subordinate Council in good standing shall be seated with a voice and vote at the Annual Meeting of the State Council.

Section 6. Each subordinate council shall elect a Past Grand Knight to serve as Delegate (unless the council is too new to have a Past Grand Knight), and two 3rd Degree members as Alternate Delegates, during the council elections conducted May 1 to June 15. The Grand Knight or Financial Secretary shall submit an email to the State Secretary listing the council representatives no later than September 1. The email listing shall contain the full name and membership number of the Grand Knight, Delegate (a PGK), 1st Alternate, and 2nd Alternate. The council representatives must present their current membership card to the State Secretary's Station at the annual meeting.

Section 7. Temporary Roll-Call of Delegates. The State Secretary or his designee shall prepare a roll of names of all Grand Knights, delegates, and alternates on the credentials presented to him prior to the calling to order of the annual State Council Meeting and said roll shall be the roll of the State Council until the Committee on Credentials has submitted its report and the permanent roll determined by the action of the meeting on said report.

Section 8. Contests. In case of a contest for a seat in the Annual State Council Meeting, one member on each side may appear and make argument before the Committee on Credentials, chaired by the State Secretary, each being allowed time not to exceed five minutes except by special consent of the Committee. Said Committee's decision shall be the recommendation to the annual meeting for the contested seat.

Section 9. Councils in Arrears. Councils not having paid indebtedness owed to the Supreme Council, the State Council, or their respective Chapter, within the time required by law shall not be entitled to representation at the Annual State Council Meeting.

Section 10. Committees. Standing Committees and Special Committees shall be appointed by the State Deputy when deemed necessary by him or when directed by the action of the State Council.

Reports shall be made by all Standing and Special Committees to the State Deputy when directed by him. The reports shall be submitted in writing by the chairman of the committee.

The District Deputies shall submit a report on the conditions of the councils in their respective districts. In addition, the Grand Knight of each council shall submit a report on the activities of his council. Copies of these reports shall be delivered to the Executive Secretary at least six weeks before the convening of the Annual State Council Meeting.

The State Secretary or his designee shall have these reports produced in a BOOK OF REPORTS and shall deliver at the annual meeting one copy to each individual listed in Section 12 of this Article. Expenses of producing the Book of Reports shall be paid by the State Council.

The State Deputy shall deliver his report for the fraternal year at the opening session of the Annual State Council Meeting. This report shall be in writing.

The State Warden, and his assistants as appointed by the State Deputy, shall ascertain if each Third Degree member has a signed current membership card as he enters the chamber at the opening of each session of the Annual State Council Meeting.

Section 12. The State Deputy shall preside at all sessions of the State Council, performing the usual duties of Chairman. He shall be ex-officio, a member of all State Council Committees.

The State Secretary or his designee shall record all proceedings of the Annual State Council Meeting. He shall prepare and have produced a BOOK OF PROCEEDINGS of the Annual State Council Meeting to be certified by the State Deputy. He shall furnish one copy to each State Officer, Master, Past State Deputy, Executive Staff Member, District Deputy, State Committee Director and Chairman, Warden to the State Deputy, and Grand Knight. This distribution will be done no later than the following annual meeting. Expenses of producing the proceedings shall be paid by the State Council.

Section 13. Resolutions and Changes in Bylaws. All resolutions, petitions, recommendations of changes, amendments to Bylaws, requests for funds requiring an appropriation from the treasury of the State Council, or requiring a collection from or subscription by members of the Order, etc., must be forwarded to the State Deputy at least sixty (60) days prior to the Annual State Council Meeting. The members of the Resolutions Committee shall hold a meeting to consider the resolutions, etc., so submitted, and to prepare any further resolutions, etc., as may be proper to carry out the purposes of Article I, Section 4, hereof.

Thirty days prior to the convening of the Annual State Council Meeting, this committee shall mail to the State Deputy, each State Officer, each Past State Deputy, each District Deputy, and the Grand Knight of each subordinate council, a brief summary of the resolutions with a statement of the committees proposed action to be taken thereon. This summary shall be read at the next council meeting by the Grand Knight. This summary shall include a formal notice that, if there be any opposition to the action proposed, those objecting must submit the opposition in writing, with the reason therefore, and the proposed corrections or deletions, if any, to the State Advocate not less than ten (10) days prior to the date of said Annual Meeting.

This summary is sent to the aforementioned officers merely as a courtesy and no action on their part or the subordinate councils shall be in any way binding on the State Council. The State Council in official session at the annual meeting shall decide on the acceptance, rejection, or no action taken of all resolutions.

No instruction to Grand Knights, Delegates, or Alternates by subordinate councils shall be binding on them in session at the Annual State Council Meeting.

Section 14. Speaking- Limitation. When a member wishes to speak he shall rise and address the Chair.

The presiding officer shall request the name of the member and the council he represents, who, when recognized, shall confine himself to the subject under consideration. Speeches concerning the disposition of a resolution shall not exceed a total of three minutes in length for any one individual. No member shall speak more than once upon any question until all others who desire to speak have spoken.

Section 15. The roll shall not be called upon a demand for yeas and nays, unless requested by a majority vote of the members present.

ARTICLE II - ELECTIONS

Section 1. The State Deputy, State Secretary, State Treasurer, State Advocate, State Warden, and eight delegates and ten alternates (two of these shall be alternates to the State Deputy and the last living Past State Deputy actually residing in Maryland) to the Supreme Convention shall be elected by ballot.

Section 2. The nomination of candidates shall be made for State Deputy, other State Officers, delegates, and alternates to the Supreme Convention of both the insurance and associate class. Only insurance members may be nominated as the insurance delegates. The number of insurance delegates shall be as determined by the Supreme Council. Insurance members are qualified for nomination as candidates for associate delegates.

Those insurance members, as nominated, receiving the highest number of votes in order shall be first elected as the insurance delegates to the Supreme Convention. The associate delegates shall then be selected from the next highest number of votes cast, be they either insurance or associate members. The alternates shall be elected in the same manner as the delegates.

If at the time of the Supreme Convention any such insurance or associate delegate is unable to attend the Supreme Convention, then his alternate shall be selected in the order of his precedence, according to the vote electing him. If there has been no vote for alternate, then the State Deputy shall designate which alternate shall attend. Should no alternate be able to attend, the State Deputy may choose any qualified third degree member to serve as alternate.

Section 3. Speeches presenting candidates for election to any State Office or as delegate to the Supreme Convention shall not exceed five minutes in length.

Section 4. When votes are taken by ballot for the election of officers, delegates, and alternates, the same shall be of uniform size and color, the same to be furnished by the State Secretary.

Section 5. The State Deputy or presiding officer shall appoint tellers to receive and count the votes and report the vote count back to the chair. The chair will then announce the results.

Section 6. When only one candidate is nominated for a State Office, or only a number of candidates equal to the number of delegates or alternates to be elected to the Supreme Convention are nominated, the State Deputy may direct the State Secretary to cast the unanimous ballot of the State Council for such candidate or candidates, who may then be declared duly elected.

Section 7. In all cases of election to any office in the State Council, a majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to elect; except when several of equal degree are to be elected as delegates or alternates, a majority shall not be necessary.

Section 8. When more than one candidate is nominated for a State Office, or more candidates for delegates or alternates to the Supreme Convention than the number to be elected are nominated, the election shall be by individual ballot and the procedure shall be as follows: The State Secretary shall call from the permanent roll those entitled to vote and as each is called the individual will step forward and deposit his ballot. The voter must vote for the full number of delegates to be elected or this ballot will not be counted. He must vote for the full number of alternates to be elected or this ballot will not be counted.

Section 9. Officers right to vote. The State Deputy, State Secretary, State Treasurer, State Advocate, State Warden, State Chaplain, and the Immediate Past State Deputy (as defined in Article I, Section 2(a)(3) shall have the right to vote.

Section 10. The terms of all State Officers shall be for one (1) year, beginning on the first day of July and ending on the thirtieth day of June of the next succeeding year.

Section 11. The State Secretary shall provide each elected State Officer, delegate, and alternate with a form which shall be filled out with the following information: name, title, insurance or associate member, membership number, council name and number, home address, city, state, zip code, and phone numbers (home and office). Said forms shall be turned in to the State Secretary before the close of the Annual State Council Meeting.

The Executive Secretary shall be bonded by a Maryland corporate surety company in the amount of Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars or whatever the amount the State Officers may from time to time deem necessary. This bond shall have its premiums paid by the State Council and the bond deposited with the State Deputy.

The State Officers may at their discretion provide insurance coverage to protect the funds or property of the Maryland State Council from loss due to fire, flood, or theft.

The Financial Books of the State Council shall consist of a book or books of bank deposits and disbursements. Each deposit entry shall show: the date, the amount deposited, the purpose of the payment, and the name of the payer. Each payment entry shall show: the date, the check number, the amount of the disbursement, and the purpose of the disbursement. These books shall be kept up to date and balanced monthly by the State Treasurer with information provided by the Executive Secretary to the State Council. At the beginning of each month, the State Officers shall be furnished with a copy of the State Council financial transactions for the previous month as well as the Current Balance Sheet and a report comparing the annual budget with the actual receipts and expenses.

Section 3. The State Council shall levy a per capita assessment on all subordinate councils in Maryland based on membership. Such assessment shall be levied semi-annually on the first day of July and the first day of January in each year. The per capita assessment shall be as determined from time to time by the Maryland State Council at its annual meeting, to be necessary for the proper conduct of the Order in Maryland, and shall continue in full force and effect unless and until reduced or increased by the action of the State Council. Honorary Life Members (which include members of the clergy) shall be exempt from any per capita assessment.

All college councils shall be granted a reduction of 25% of per capita assessments made by the Maryland State Council. This assessment reduction shall be used by the college councils for those Catholic and fraternal programs as shall be approved by the council chaplain.

Section 4. All assessments made by the State Council shall be due and payable within sixty (60) days after the first day of July and the first day of January following the Annual State Council Meeting. Assessments shall be based on the membership as of record in the Supreme Council on July 1st and January 1st. All councils instituted prior to January 1 or July 1 shall not be liable for assessments levied by the State Council for the next half-year following such institution. The Executive Secretary to the State Council shall send to each Council due notice thereof (and shall append to such notice extracts from section 57 and 157 of the Supreme Charter, Constitution, and Laws setting forth the penalties for failure to pay said assessments).

Section 5. Allowances for Attendance and Services. Grand Knights and delegates to the Annual State Council Meeting, State Officers, Past State Deputies, the Executive Staff, District Deputies, State Council Committee Directors and Chairmen, and invited dignitaries shall be allowed per diem for actual attendance at the Annual State Council Meeting in amounts as shall be determined proper by the State officers. For Grand Knights, Delegates and, Alternates to receive a State Council Annual Meeting attendance stipend, they must be seated for the two business sessions during which the voting for resolutions and officers takes place.

Section 6. The State Treasurer, assisted by the Executive Secretary to the State Council, shall balance the financial records as of December 31st to enable completion of the audit by March 31st.

Section 7. State Council Annual Audit. The State Officers shall select an Auditor, who shall be a Certified Public Accountant, for the purpose of auditing all of the books of the State Council and his report of same shall be rendered at the Annual State Council Meeting. He shall be compensated in an amount as approved by the State Officers.
