Monitor and Ensure Submission of FIA Reports

- Make sure you forward you copies of the report to your DD
- Check FIA tracking spreadsheet each month
- Immediately notify DD of any discrepancies
- Check often – at least monthly

The image shows a "FRATERNAL PROGRAMS REPORT FORM" with a blue header. Below the header, there are fields for "Council Number:" and "Date(s) of Program:". A section titled "Rate program participation for regular attendance and program" contains four columns: "FIA", "FIA", "Community", and "LIFE". Each column lists various programs with checkboxes. Below this are sections for "Participation" with counts for "New", "Re-Enrolled", and "Total", and "Program Planning" with "Yes" and "No" options. There are also checkboxes for "Is your council's Safe Environment Program compliant?", "Program Promotions", "List successful program(s)", and "Summarize the effects of all activities". At the bottom, there are fields for "Signed:" and "Date:" for both the "Council" and "Program Director". A footer contains contact information and a small logo.

How Many of You Have Heard...

“We Don’t Want Awards”

We get it. But we need to be accountable to our pastor, parishioners and partners in the community by reporting on our efforts.

Show Appreciation

- Recognize brothers, families, and volunteers at events
- Recognize brothers during meetings
- Highlight contributions in parish bulletin
- Be an example for new brother Knights
